Cargo Terminal's Very Own Satirical Magazine

Volume 1 : Number 1

August 1967

EDITORIAL COMMENT

As this is our first attempt at writing a noos magerzeen we would like to apollojise four eny illijitimait errers.

Our Reporter, At large in the Terminal, asked various personalities to comment on our proposed literary presentation. The following comments ensued:-

Mr JR Jones
Manager Cargo Terminal

- " You Can't park Here, Bach! "

Mr DV Weller
Cargo Handling Supt

- " Hic!! "

Dave Garrick
Equipment Officer

- " But I Haven't indented for Any! "

Jock Wight
Cargo Handling Officer

- " ???!!! %&@000 "

Mike Fossey
Cargo Handling Officer

- " Is it Sugared ? "

Mr AV Johnson
Import Supt

- " If it's a Woman Editor I'll give her an M1. "

Mr F Brownley
Export Supt

- " Good Morning, Everybody ."

Carey Hunt
Warehouseman

- " This is a genuinely conscientious literary effort by a group of intellectuals individuals to produce a magazine of such a high standard to complement the intelligence and individualism of the working masses of Cargo. The political flavour is somewhat indefinable as yet, but I feel there is a definite tendency towards Revisionist Marxism thereby following the trend of Modern Young Ex Kings Collage Oxford Journalists (Where I studied before becoming a

THE INSIDER

We hear that --- Urgent Entries are having Traffic lights installed to Control the flow of Movement's Traffic to and from the loo----- Go in on the Green only, Never go in on the Red! ..... that one of the Cargo Staff was directly responsible for the 747 deal after lunching with the Chairman Of Boeings last year ..... that Movements have gone up in the World}}-- One floor in fact ..... that the CDOs grabbed the next Office to Movements so they wouldn't have so far to walk when they have problems.....that in an exclusive interview with a Group One Clerk we find he's okay its just his body that craves and needs alcohol.....that there is no truth in the rumour Eric Hudson is basing the new Cargo Terminal of "The Shape of Things to Come". Nobby and the rest of the CDOs (God bless 'em) flatly refuse to travel the Bond in a perspex tube at 450mph (Editors Comment: Pallbearers have been suggested as an alternative)
..... that one guy went for a Meal break on the Thursday and came back the following Tuesday }}- weve heard of slow service But!!!!..
